

Chingona
COMMUNITY, INC. TM

UNITED, BOLD, BADASS

2023
IMPACT REPORT

www.chingonacommunity.com

CELEBRATING A SUCCESSFUL YEAR OF IMPACT

Mission

The Chingona Community is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering women while giving back to the community through service, events, youth mentorship and business networking.

The Chingona Community and our practices incorporate resilient and unstoppable females doing good for themselves along with and in conjunction with its members. We focus on building business connections, training and development, while cultivating diversity initiatives

A Year in Review

The Chingona Community experienced incredible growth in 2023.

As part of our mission, we made an impact in the areas of:

- Leadership & Inspiration
- Community
- Financial Growth
- Health and Wellness

OUR HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

Chase Bank Finance Workshops - Financial Education for Women (Financial Growth)

Los Angeles Marathon - Raised $6000 for ELLA & their female athletes (Community)

Grant Tank Finalist- Secured $2500 to support the females within our group with training and networking event opportunities throughout 2023 (Community)

2nd Annual Chingona Community Scholarship Awards – Gave out $7000 in scholarships to 4 female students (Leadership & Inspiration – Community)

2nd Annual Youth Day in conjunction with Boys And Girls Club Whittier - Engaged over 50 students with exposure to workforce development, networking, and trade and college introductions (Leadership & Inspiration – Community)

3rd Annual Chingona Community Car Show - Planned, sponsored and raised over $8000 for students of St. Paul of the Cross grade school. Funds went towards to purchase of books, and other school necessities (Community – Financial Growth)

Pilot of the Chingona Mindset at Loyola Marymount University – Offered a no cost leadership and inspiration course for 20 attendees, both faculty and students. (Leadership and Inspiration)

4th Annual Chingona Community Canned Food Drive - Provided over 300 families with food for Thanksgiving (Leadership and Inspiration)

Hosted 3 Yoga Events and our 1st Postpartum Discussion - Supported over 60 women with mind, body and soul outlets (Health and Wellness)

Rozalyn R Lucero-Corona – CEO

The Chingona Community would like to thank its donors, supporters, members and affiliates. With your generosity, we look forward to continuing to make a meaningful impact.

